

Word	Meaning	Phonetics	Sentence
• Catastrophe	a sudden & widespread disaster.	Kuh-tes-trophy	A catastrophe happened in Korea yesterday due to the earthquake.
• dwell	to live or stay at a particular place.	do-well.	As a travel ^{nomad} traveller , he dwelt in many remote areas of Punjab.
• Lament	an expression of grief or sorrow	luh-ment	Football fans lament the passing of an iconic sports legend.
• melancholy	a gloomy state of mind	mel-un-koli	He looked friendly and helpful, but melancholy.
• felicity	the state of being happy	fi-lisi-tea	The parents always beamed with felicity whenever their child gets success.
• Chasm	a deep cleft in the earth's surface	Kaz-uhm	Chasm often led to the horrible accidents.
• Kindred	having the same belief	Kinn-drid	After having a long conversation, we realized that we were kindred spirits.

Word	Meaning	Phonetics	Sentence
Pertinacious	course of action, opinion.	put-tney-shaks	He is always pertinacious about the theories he tells to other.
Solitious	anxious or concerned.	soh-lisi-tuks	Diabetic patients should always be solitious about their health.
Sepulcher	burial place	sep-uhl-kee	The Viking's king was buried in the loyal sepulcher along with other nobel ^{man}
Contemplative	involving prolonged thought	Kon-templativ	People are always inspired by a contemplative person
Smoulder	burning slowly with smoke	smohl-del	The delicious BBQ was ready after being cooked on a smouldering fire.
Conjecture	a proposition which is suspected to be true.	Kon-jek-chel	The discovery of black hole is based on conjecture.
despondency	loss of hope	deh-spon-dehn-see	He felt very despondent when his thesis was rejected.
agony	intense physical or mental suffering	ag-uh-nee	The vet decided to put the cat to sleep rather than let the injured animal suffer in agony.